

Short Curriculum Vitae

Balázs Surányi
suranyi@nytud.hu

Work experience

- from 2004 Research Institute for Linguistics of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (from 2012 on: research professor)
- from 2009 Department of Theoretical Linguistics, Pázmány Péter Catholic University (from 2012 on: full professor)
- before PhD Department of English Linguistics, Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest
(lecturer); Department of English, Pázmány Péter Catholic University (lecturer)

Studies and degrees

- June 2011 Doctor of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (DSc)
Title of habilitationschrift: Freedom of Word Order and Domains for Movement: A flexible syntax of Hungarian
- 1999–2003 University of Utrecht, PhD programme, PhD in Linguistics (2003)
- 1995–1999 MA in Theoretical Linguistics, Eötvös Loránd University (includes BA training)
- 1993–1998 MA in English Language and Literature, Eötvös Loránd Tudományegyetem (MA degree with distinction)

Main individual grants*

- 2007–2010 Bolyai János Research Fellowship (evaluation: excellent)
- 2004–2007 Postdoctoral Grant of the Hungarian Scientific Research Fund
- 2003 Békésy György postdoctoral scholarship (Hungarian Ministry of Education)
- 1999–2002 Doctoral research scholarship of the University of Utrecht

Areas of research

generative syntax,
syntax/semantics interfaces,
interface of information structure and prosody

Publications and presentations (summary)

63 research publications (of which 45 international publications)
75 presentations (of which international: 57; invited talks: 18)

---

* After MA degree.

Main group research grants as Principal Investigator

- 2011–2015 Division of Labour in the Grammar of Scope: The interaction of syntax with semantics, information structure and prosody in the generation of scope effects.
Hungarian Scientific Research Fund (grant no. NF-84217)
- 2011–2016 The division of labour of linguistic subsystems in the expression of quantifier scope
Momentum grant of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences
- 2008–2011 A minimalist approach to syntactic locality. A study of the division of labour of linguistic subsystems underlying syntactic locality effects.
Hungarian Scientific Research Fund (grant no. NF-73537)

Editorial experience

- 2012- Finno-Ugric Languages and Linguistics (inaugural issue: December 2012), co-editor-in-chief together with Prof. Anders Holmberg (University of Newcastle), Prof. Paul Kiparsky (University of Stanford), dr. Pauli Brattico (University of Jyväskylä)
- In progress Comprehensive Grammar Resources: Hungarian. Amsterdam University Press. (Member of editorial board, editor of Vol. 1. The Structure of the Hungarian Clause)
- In progress Minimalist Approaches to Syntactic Locality, Cambridge University Press.
- 2011 Acta Linguistica Hungarica 58 (3). Special issue guest editor.

Other responsibilities

- from 2009 Linguist member of the Humanities Committee of the Hungarian Scholarship Board
- from 2008 Member of the Board of Young Researchers' of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences
- from 2010 expert reviewer, Fonds National de la Recherche Scientifique, Belgium
- from 2011 expert reviewer, Hungarian Scientific Research Fund

Reviewing for international journals

Natural Language and Linguistic Theory, Canadian Journal of Linguistics, Theoretical Linguistics, Syntax, Acta Linguistica Hungarica, Linguistic Inquiry, Linguistics, Lingua

Prizes and awards

- 2011 Pázmány Plaque (Pázmány Péter Catholic University)
- 2011 Bolyai Plaque (Hungarian Academy of Sciences)
- 2007 Junior Prize of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences
- 2005 Supervisor's Prize for First Place, 27th National Scholarly Competition of University Students, Humanities